

U. S. Department of Justice

Washington, D.C. 20530

Mark Lamendola
4806 Wedd Street
Merriam, KS 66203-5414

Dear Mr. Lamendola:

Thank you for your recent letter to the Attorney General. Federal law authorizes officers of the Department of Justice to give opinions or to render legal services only to Federal officials charged with public responsibilities. After a review of your letter, we have determined that the agency listed below can best address your concern:

Department of Health & Human Services
Communications Control Center
Room 639-G
200 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20201

Since you may want to pursue the matter through the channels we recommend, we are returning your letter.

Sincerely,

Jody Antol
Assistant Director
Mail, Multimedia, and
Publications Services
Facilities and Administrative Services Staff
Justice Management Division

Enclosure